

Melton Mowbray and District Historical Society.

Programme 2024/2025

Meetings are held at the Baptist Church off Leicester Road, Melton Mowbray. LE13 0FA on the 2nd Tuesday of each month between October and April; starting at 7:30 pm.

During the summer months Trips/Outings are also arranged.

Summer Outings.

Friday 10th May 2024. “Annual Summer Lunch” – The “Sysonby Knoll Hotel”.

Saturday 6th July. Outing to “Harewood House” (HHA), Leeds, Yorkshire.

Saturday 1st August. Outing to “Lyme” - National Trust (NT), Disley, Stockport, Cheshire.

Note 1. Anyone with membership of either the National Trust (NT) or Historical Houses Association (HHA) must carry their Membership Card on the trip to qualify for the discounted admission charge.

Note 2. Costs include luxury coach travel, parking, entrance tickets where required and gratuities for the driver etc.

In cases where there are insufficient numbers of our own members to make an outing viable any spare places will be offered to non-society members who will be charged an additional £5 to secure temporary membership of the Society and to comply with insurance requirements.

Winter Talks Programme.

Tuesday 8th of October.

“The London Underground” by: Dr Piers Connor, FCIRO, MCILT. International Railways Consultant.

Tuesday 12th of November.

“The History of the Royal Army Veterinary Corp 1962-2021” by Lt Col Christopher Hamm MBE RAVC (Rtrd).

Tuesday 10th December.

“Flappers & Baggies – Fashion in the Jazz Age” by Nick Marshall – Local Historian and Speaker.

Tuesday 14th of January 2025.

“Malcolm Sargent – Part 2” by Sam Dobson – Retired Tax Officer and Illustrator for “The History of the LSO”.

Tuesday 11th of February.

“The History of the Nottingham Theatre” by Andrew Smart – Local Historian and Author.

Tuesday 11th of March.

“The Sky’s The Limit” by Mike Ogden – Historian and Public Speaker.

Tuesday 8th of April.

“Joseph Merrick” – “The Elephant Man” by Joanne Vigor-Mungovin - Historian and Author.
